

Call for Papers

Uppsala University and the Institute for Evaluation of Labour Market and Education Policy (IFAU) are arranging a workshop on “The labour market with an ageing population” September 6–7 2018 in Uppsala, Sweden.

The purpose of the workshop is to provide an opportunity to discuss papers dealing with the societal challenges with an ageing population. Topics of interest are, e.g., retirement decisions, hiring decisions and discrimination, screening and monitoring in the sickness and disability insurance, as well as questions relating to housing and family. The meeting will contain both contributed and invited papers. The keynote speaker is Eric French from University College London

The meeting starts with a lunch on Thursday, September 6 and finishes with a lunch on Friday, September 7. The organizers cover accommodation and reimburse travel costs for presenting authors. The number of participants is limited to 40, and we expect to have 10 contributed papers. Extended abstracts submitted to the meeting should be sent to asa.landqvist@ifau.uu.se by June 15, 2018. The local organizers will evaluate all submissions and communicate acceptance decisions by July 15. Presenters of accepted papers and other participants should register by August 1.

We look forward to seeing you in Uppsala!
