PROGRAM

The labour market with an ageing population

6–7 September, 2018

September 6

12:00–13:00  Lunch

13:00–14:00  Keynote speech: Eric French

14:00–14:40  Pension Reform: Disentangling Retirement and Savings Responses
Maarten Lindeboom and Raymond Montizaan

14:40–15:10  Coffee break

15:10–15:50  Health, Longevity and Pension Reform
Tobias Laun, Simen Markussen, Trond Christian Vigtel and Johanna Wallenius

15:50–16:30  The causal impact of work on cognition and physical disability: exploiting the increase in the state pension age for women in the UK
James Banks, Jonathan Cribb, Carl Emmerson and David Sturrock

16:30–16:40  Break

16:40–17:20  Age Discrimination in Hiring Decisions: Evidence from a Field Experiment in the Labor Market
Magnus Carlsson and Stefan Eriksson

17:20–18:00  The effect of health on the intention to retire of older workers
Danilo Cavapozzi and Chiara Dal Bianco

19:00  Dinner
September 7

9:00–9:40  Unequal Burden of Retirement Reform: Evidence from Australia
            Todd Morris

9:40–10:20  Examining the Size of the Justification Bias in the Effect of Health on Retirement Behavior
            Dorethe Skovgaard Bjerre, Bent Jesper Christensen and Malene Kallestrup-Lamb

10:20–10:40  Coffee break

10:40–11:20  Which firms employ older workers?
             Daniela Andrén and Lackson Daniel Mudenda

11:20–12:00  Long-term effects of extended unemployment benefits for older workers
              Tomi Kyyrää and Hanna Pesola

12:00–12:10  Break

12:10–12:50  A nudge to quit? The effect of a change in pension information on annuitization, labor supply and retirement choices among older workers
              Johannes Hagen, Daniel Hallberg and Gabriella Sjögren Lindquist

13:00  Lunch